Poverty rates are higher in the major upstate cities than in New York City and New York State overall.

Y-axis: Percent of population living below the federal poverty line

Legend:
- ■ All people
- □ Children

Location	All people	Children
New York State	15.9%	22.6%
New York City	21.2%	31.1%
Syracuse city	38.2%	54.3%
Rochester city	31.6%	48.7%
Buffalo city	30.9%	44.9%
Schenectady city	21.5%	37.2%
Albany city	26.8%	34.5%
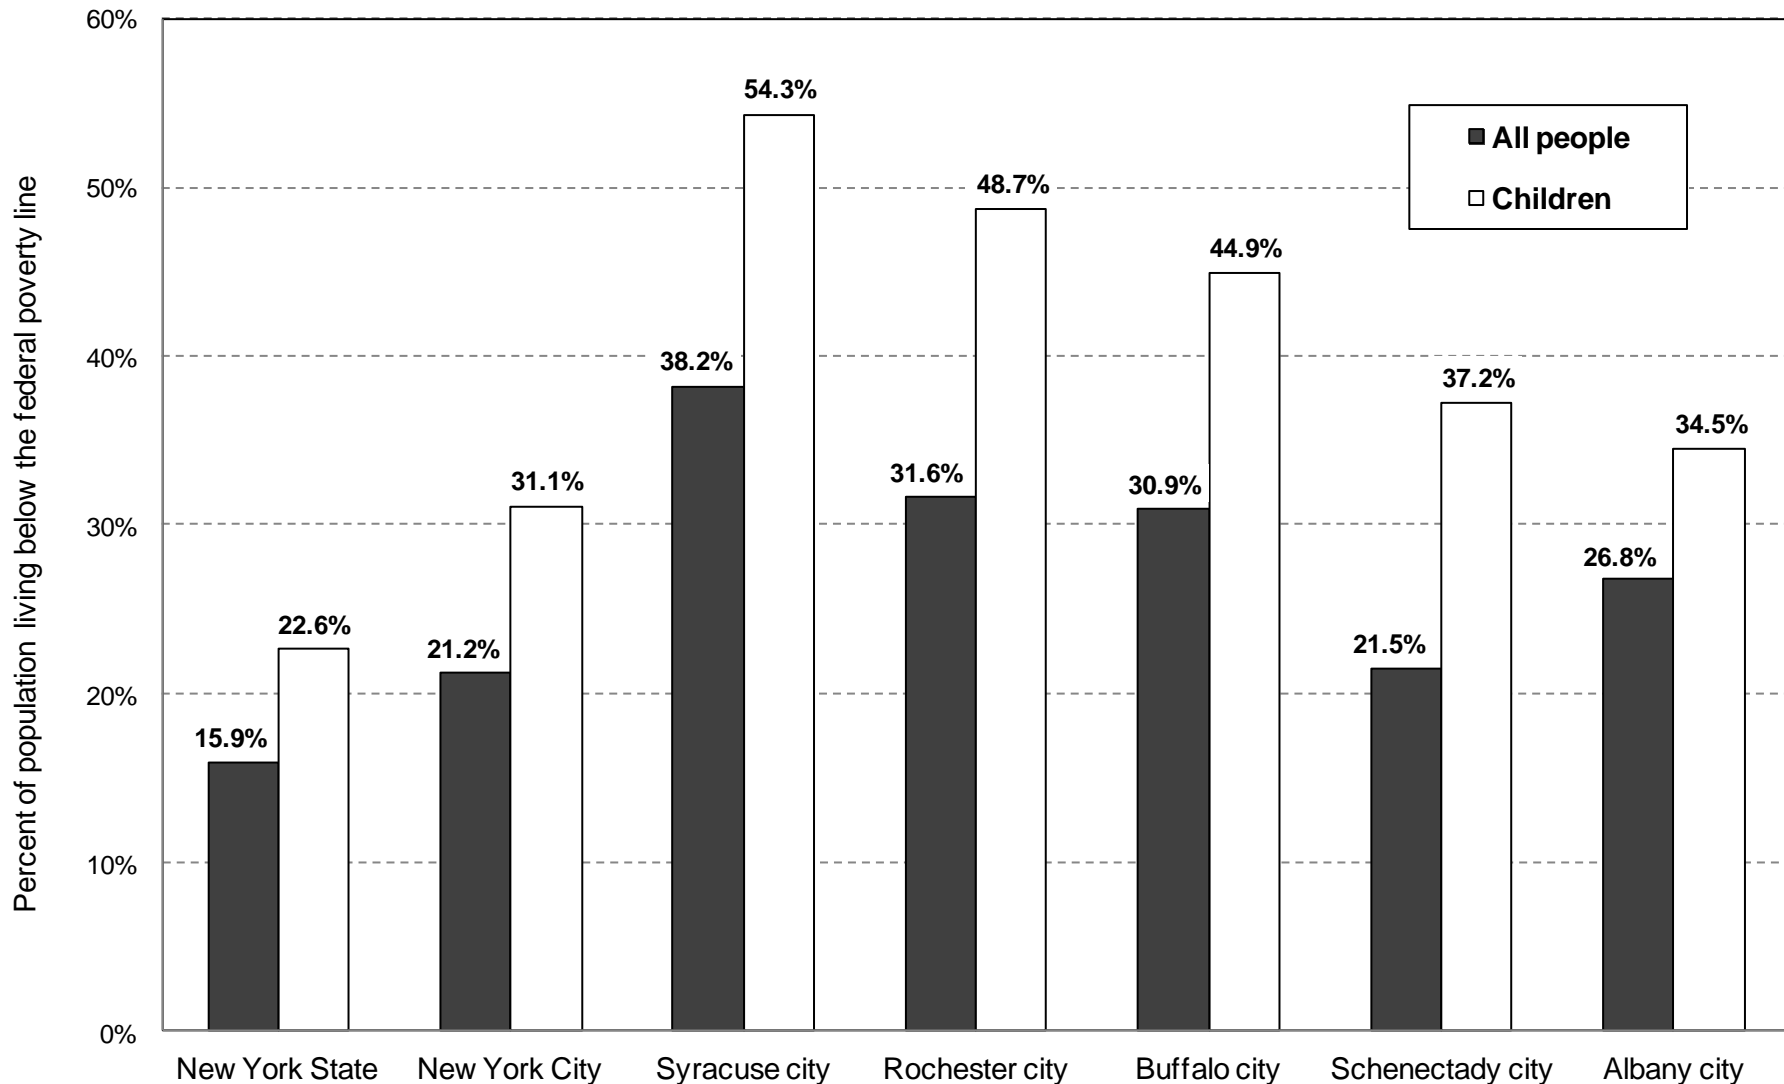

Source: American Community Survey (ACS) single-year estimate data.