

The Fiscal Policy Institute and New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness invite you to a briefing and community forum on . . .

Governor Spitzer's 2007-08 Executive Budget and its Implications for New York Families and the Upstate Economy

Thursday, February 8, 2007

2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

New York State United Teachers (NYSUT) Building
Union Place
30 North Union Street
Rochester, NY 14607

- An Overview of Governor Spitzer's Budget Proposals. What are the major elements of Governor Spitzer's first Executive Budget (currently scheduled for release on January 31, 2007)?
- Changes in the State Budget Process and their Implications for Budget Advocacy. How will the changes in the state budget process that Governor Spitzer and the legislative leaders announced on January 16th affect the Legislature's review, revision and adoption of a budget for 2007-08? What are the implications of these changes for budget advocacy by nonprofit organizations?
- Key Budget and Tax Issues. A more detailed look at the Governor's budget proposals affecting education, property taxes, health and human services, and economic development. What are the implications of these proposals for New York families and the Upstate economy? What are the major alternatives to the Governor's proposals in these key areas?

Register for this briefing by completing this reply form and faxing it to 518-786-3146; or by calling 518-786-3156; or by sending an e-mail message to info@fiscalpolicy.org.

Name _____ Title _____

Organization _____

Address _____ City _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____ E-mail _____

For additional information, please call the Fiscal Policy Institute at 518-786-3156.