

The Fiscal Policy Institute, New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness, the Women Studies Department and Citizen Action of Binghamton

invite you to a briefing and community forum on

Governor Spitzer's 2008-09 Executive Budget and its Implications for New York Families and the Upstate Economy

Friday, February 28, 2008
12:00 to 2:00 pm

Binghamton University Downtown Center
Room 220B -
Parking in the State St or Boscov's Ramp

- An Overview of Governor Spitzer's Budget Proposals. What are the major elements of Governor Spitzer's Executive Budget
- Key Budget and Tax Issues. A more detailed look at the Governor's budget proposals affecting education, property taxes, health and human services, and economic development. What are the implications of these proposals for New York Families and the Upstate Economy? What are the major alternatives to the Governor's proposals in these key areas?
- Better Choice Budget Campaign (BCBC). Take a detailed look at 6 different ways over 100 community-based, faith based, labor and other organizations think we should close our budget gap and make the tax system more equitable for working families.

Register for this briefing by completing this reply form and faxing it to 518-869-8649; or by calling 518-452-2130; or by sending an e-mail message to mkd67@aol.com.

Name _____ Title _____

Organization _____

Address _____ City _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____ E-mail _____

For additional information, please call New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness at 518-452-2130