

The Fiscal Policy Institute and
New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness invite you to a briefing and community forum on

Governor Spitzer's 2008-09 Executive Budget and its Implications for New York Families and the Upstate Economy

Thursday, March 6, 2008
10:00 am to 12:00 pm

NYSUT Headquarters
800 Troy-Schenectady Road
Latham, NY

- An Overview of Governor Spitzer's Budget Proposals. What are the major elements of Governor Spitzer's Executive Budget.
- Key Budget and Tax Issues. A more detailed look at the Governor's budget proposals affecting education, property taxes, health and human services, and economic development. What are the implications of these proposals for New York Families and the Upstate Economy? What are the major alternatives to the Governor's proposals in these key areas?
- Better Choice Budget Campaign (BCBC). Take a detailed look at 6 different ways over 100 community-based, faith based, labor and other organizations think we should close our budget gap and make the tax system more equitable for working families.

Presented by

Frank Mauro, Executive Director, Fiscal Policy Institute
Ron Deutsch, Executive Director, New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness

For additional information, please call New Yorkers for Fiscal Fairness at 518-452-2130 or the Fiscal Policy Institute at 518-786-3156. Light refreshments will be served.