THE IMMIGRATION AND DEPORTATION CRISIS

Wednesday, September 26, 2018
2:55-4 p.m.

Lowenfeld Conference and Exhibition Hall
Axinn Library, 10th Floor, South Campus

Immigration is the single most important issue in the country, according to a recent national poll. Over the past year of fierce controversy, the DACA program has been derailed; refugee visas have shrunk; and immigrant arrests, family separations, and deportations have soared. Join us to hear about the implications of these issues from speakers on the front lines of our immigration debates:

- ▶ Emily Ngara, Attorney-in-Charge, Deportation Defense Clinic
Maurice A. Deane School of Law, Hofstra University
- ▶ Saul Guerrero, Labor Organizer
United Food and Commercial Workers International Union
- ▶ David Dysegaard Kallick, Deputy Director and Director of Immigration Research,
Fiscal Policy Institute, and co-author of a recent study titled
"Refugees as Employees: Good Retention, Strong Recruitment"

Admission is free and open to the public
No RSVP is required.
